PLANS MADE FOR BRYAN RECEPTION

At Request of Distinguished Home-Comer Simplicity Will Dominate Everything.

GLAD TO SEE NEWSPAPER MEN

Writes That He Will Be "Delighted to Meet the Boys of the Press."

NEW YORK, August 23.-At a meeting to-day of the Executive Committee, which has charge of the reception of William J. Bryan, it was announced that Harry W. Walker, chairman of the Press Committee, had received a letter from Mr. Bryan mailed before he sailed from Gibraltar, accepting an invitation dine with the newspapermen at the Walforf-Astoria, on the evening of Saturday, September 1. In his letter, Mr. Bryan "Shall be delighted to meet the boys of the press. I have not found any better newspaper men anywhere than better newspaper men anywhere than our own."

While the reception to Mr Bryan, in 'New York, on August 30th will be the most remarkable popular demonstration to a plain American citizen ever seen in the country, and while the city will be crowded with more visitors than at any one time in its history probably, no difficulty is apprehended by the managers of the entertainment in caring for the throngs of strangers. Of course, everybody will not be able to hear Mr. Bryan's speech in Madison Square Garden on the night of August 30th, but every visitor will be able to see him during the parade in the afternoon and at night in Madison Square Park.

Rousing Welcome.

Madison Square Park.

Rousing Welcome.

Mr. Bryan will be brought to the Battery at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, where he will be welcomed by as many people as can crowd into Battery Park and the streets in the vicinity. A sufficient force of police will be on hand to preserve order there and along the entire route of march. Mr. Bryan will ride in an open carriage with Governor Folk, of Missouri, and probably Acting Mayor Mo-Gowan. An escort of one of the city troops will be provided, and it is optional with visiting delegations to follow on horseback or in carriages.

Speech of Bryan.

The doors of the Madison Square Garden will be opened about 6:30 F. M. and a band of fifty pleces or more will furnish a cancert from 7 to 8 F. M. At the latter hour the speaking will begin. In behalf of the Commercial Travelers' Anti-Trust League, under whose auspices the reception is to be held. Harry W. Walker will open the meeting and introduce Governor Folk, chairman of the Reception Committee. Governor Folk, in only a few words, will introduce Tom L. Johnson, Mayor of Cleveland, as presiding officer. Augustus Thomas, who will be the only speaker in addition to Mr. Bryan. Mr. Thomas will speak for five or ten minutes only, and the rest of the time will be taken up by Mr. Bryan.

The amphitheatre of Madison Square Gerden will be filled with seats for visiling delegations, to whom tickets will be issued. These tickets will be handed out in packages to the chairmen of the delegations at the committee's headquarters in the Victoria Hotel. Tickets will be allotted to the various visiting bodies according to requests sent in to the committee. The instruction is to distribute seats as equificily as possible to the different sections of the country.

The boxes in the Garden will be apportioned to the contributors of $50 or more toward defraying the expense of the reception. As the delegates arrive Speech of Bryan.

Simplicity is to dominate everything about the reception, at the request of Mr. Bryan, and the procession up Broadway will be without music or other accessories of a gurish nature. As Mr. Bryan is to be welcomed merely as a distinguished American in private life, who has attracted world-wide attention as one of the greatest men this country has produced, the desire is to avoid the trappings of political demonstration.

The parade will be up Broadway, ilrough masses of people lining the sidewalk, to Fifty-Initi Street, thence skirting the park to Fifth Avenue, and then flow the walk to Fifth Avenue, and then flow the avenue to the Victoria Hotel, at Twenty-seventh Street, Fifth Avenue and Broadway. Mr. Bryan's headquarters will be at the Victoria Hotel.

Speech of Bryan.

The earliest arrivals at the Garden nat-urally will get the best accommodations, This will be the case, especially, with seats that have not been reserved.

Keep Open House.

Keep Open House.

On the evening provious to the reception, August 29th, the National Democratic Club, No. 617 Fifth Avenue, near Fiftleth Street, will have an "at home", for the visiting delegations from other cities and States. For five days thereafter the club will keep "open house" for all out-of-bown Democrats.

Mr. Bryan's only speech in New York will be in Madison Square Garden, with the exception of a short talk to the overflow in the park after the indoor meeting. On August 31st he goes to Bridgeport and New Haven, Conn., and the next day to New Jersey. He will probably start for the West Bunday or Monday, September 2d or 8d.

During the race week at Brighton such is the mania for gambling that every thing becomes the subject of a wager, and it not unfrequently happens that all the money won in the morning by the most knowing adents of the turf, after all the manocurves of feeding, sweating and training their steeds for, a whole season, is lost in the evening upon an ass-race on the Steine, a game at hazard or a rubber at whist.

Stakes were instantity transferred from the odd trick to the best shot, from honours on the game to honors of the field, and the long odds upoon the lurch were 7 to 2 upon the Noble Lord. Loan of Reindeer to Presbyterian Missions Forms Important Feature of Report.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, now s expected soon after his return here to take some action in the matter of the religious interests of Alaska. Dr. Sheldon Jackson, superintendent of aducation in Alaska, manager of the reinder hords which the government bought for the Eskimos, and representative of mission interests of the Presbytorian Church, seems to be the only man who can straighten out things, and it is expected he will be asked so to do. tangle of the reindeer, educational and Bought Reindeer for Eskimos. Bought Reindeer for Eskimos.

Dr. Jackson, once moderator of the Presbyterian General Synod, went to Alaska first in the missionary interest; then became superintendent of education at $2,500 a year. He figured out the scheme of buying reindeer for the benefit of the Eskimos, and the government spent a lot of money on them. There ought to be about 10,000 of these animals to the government's credit in the territory; but Dr. Jackson has icaned sundry herds of them to Presbyterian missions, and the missions, it seems, regard them as gifts.

Whether the government property has thus been dissipated is one of the questions that Secretary Hitchcook wants answered. It is charged by a speal agent whom the Secretary sent to investigate the matter that the young reindeer raised by these "loaned" government hords have been sold back to the government at $25 each, and that in one year $6,00 was spent thus in buying back the offspring of its own animals.

In the building and conduct of schools, also, Dr. Jackson is alleged to have got his financial wires crossed. The schools are alleged to have been exceedingly expensive, and not to have accomplished much useful purpose. Government funds have been donated to ald Presbyterian mission schools, one mission at Bitka getting as high as $15,000 in one year.

Mr. Churchill, the special agent, who investigated, indicated in his report that Dr. Jackson did not intend to do wrong, but that he is old and in poor health, and has stumbled into bad business methods.

Making Advertising Pay for Itself

The initial investment in advertising can, in most cases, be small. After the start there is no "expense" to advertising. Because good advertising pays for itself.

WHERE do the tremendous advertising appropriations advertising appropriations come from, Mr. Business Man?

Certainly NOT out of capital.

No, they are made up by reducing the cost of selling, by eliminating concessions and extra discounts to the trade, by maintaining prices on a firmer-or even higher basis.

Because by advertising you create demand from the consumer for your goods.

It's easier to sell goods for which there is consumer demand—hence less expensive.

Jobbers and Retailers MUST sell goods for which there is consumer demandhence no need for concessions or extra discounts to the trade.

When Jobbers and Retailers MUST sell your goods, they buy at your price, and you can make it, and keep it, a safely profitable price.

But you must get what you pay forconsumer demand.
